What's Up?

Wow! July is going to be a busy month at the Library.

We have some new workshops presented by some new friends and one “returning” teacher. Rhonda Drogo first visited the Library as a child, accompanied by her mother and grandmother. She returns to the Library with 30+ years as an esoteric teacher to facilitate a “Dare to Share” group every Thursday morning. Rhonda will also teach a numerology class and astrology class in July, both on Tuesday evenings. Read about the details inside! Thank you Rhonda, not only for your workshops, but for your willingness to assist the Library.

Dr. Rhobera Shaler, one of our board members, will be facilitating a Soulwise Living Circle, meeting weekly on Thursday evenings. The group will be exploring spiritual ideas as they apply to our lives. Izabelle Doucet will be doing EFT training. Emotional Freedom Technique is based on the same energy meridians as Chinese acupuncture but without the invasiveness of needles. This technique can be used by anyone to get relief from not only chronic pain, but emotional problems, addictions and phobias. Such a useful tool to learn about in one day! Brett Mitchell will be doing a Soul Alignment and Integration class on July 25. Miriam Parra is conducting a Past, Present and Future Lives Clearing on Sunday the 12th, going into the technicalities of how past, present and future lives affect you at this point in time.

The garage sale has become an important, recurring event, a vital one that adds to the Library’s income in these trying economic times. The location will vary as will the assortment of “treasures”, but what remains the same is our need for donations as well as help to make sure the event runs smoothly. Anything that you can do to help is much appreciated. Thanks, Jodi, for letting us use your property!

Newsletter Submissions and Scheduling

In order to serve our members, giving enough prior advance notice for events, classes, etc. we MUST have the newsletter ready to be mailed early enough in the month. This means that items for the newsletter need to be submitted by the 10th of the preceding month, allowing for creating, proof-reading, revisions, printing, processing, etc. For booking new events, check with Genny Carr at (760) 743-3849 as to availability of dates.

Once your date and time has been established, you need to write a description of the event. This “blurb” should be kept to a reasonable length (75 words or less—see current items) and include a contact person and number and/or e-mail address for further information. You should also indicate whether you will be charging a fee, or if it will be on a donation basis to the Library. Send these blurbs to Jan at janieb@cox.net.

A meeting room is available for those looking for a facility to hold a class, workshop, speaker, etc. The large room fee is $15 per hour, with a two-hour minimum. Small room fee is $10 per hour, with a two-hour minimum. Contact Genny at (760) 743-3849.

As of this writing, the midyear point has passed us by. An American favorite - The Fourth of July holiday - quickly approaches. It may already be gone by the time you sat down with this issue of the Library's Newsletter. The United State's Independence Day! Independence Day is most commonly a time for fireworks, parades, barbecues, picnics, baseball games, political speeches and grand ceremonies. As a younger person back in Iowa, our celebration ritual was virtually set in stone. It was not an official Fourth of July until our Uncle Raymond came over to our house and blew the heck out of something with a cherry bomb. I never saw my Uncle actually drunk, but he was never without a beer in one hand and a cigarette in the other. We ran around with sparklers and firecrackers and it is still a wonder to this day that none of my siblings or cousins didn't maim themselves or someone else.

Speaking of freedom, how is your personal independence going? How free are you? Even with all the quirks and snags and different opinions, we all share one of the most free societies that has ever existed. But that's not the freedom I am talking about. What about the freedom from yourself? Your old habits that no longer work to your best interest? Your attitudes and outlook on life that leaves you feeling stuck in a rut or unable to create the life you would like? Or maybe more accurately, the mind that keeps you from the life and being you know yourself to be? The freedom from your thoughts, your perceptions and your feelings that keep you feeling confined are what I'm talking about.

This is the life you have. Mark Twain said it best - "you may not regret the things you did in life nearly as much as you'll regret the things you didn't do". If you want a little push getting started, the Philosophical Library has over 10,000 books to help guide one along in this journey we call life. There are many wonderful classes, readers, and groups that gather—something different every day of the week. This month is extremely busy. There are several new exciting weekly events. I've been told the meditation on Monday evenings is quite nice. (I had to say something, that's a group which I attend. Ha!) And these classes and books can be very helpful, but your path will eventually lead you to look inside. You do not have to find a guru or teacher to tell you what to do. A true teacher will only show you what you have to do for yourself. A true teacher is trying to put themselves out of a job! But if you are looking for that gentle push along your way, consider taking a rest stop one of these days at the Library. Have a cup of tea and look around a while. And make sure you look over the new events this newsletter! Blessings ~ Ron (ron@leejen.com)

Fierce Grace—"Harvard professors Richard Alpert and Timothy Leary made countercultural history in 1963 when they were fired from that institution for conducting controversial psychedelic drug research. In the purple haze aftermath, Alpert journeyed to India and found his guru Maharaj ji, who renamed him Ram Dass ("Servant of God"). Best known for his 1971 bestseller BE HERE NOW, which was a spiritual touchstone of the era, Ram Dass became an inspiration to people across the globe. Filmmaker Mickey Lemle--who has known his subject for more than twenty-five years--intersperses vivid archival footage from hippiedom's glory days with intimate glimpses of Ram Dass today, as he continues to remake his life since being--in his words--"stroked" in 1997. Named by NEWSWEEK as one of the Top Five Non-Fiction Films of 2002, RAM DASS FIERCE GRACE is an engrossing, poignant meditation on spirituality, consciousness, healing and the unexpected grace of aging." - Amazon. $5 donation to the Philosophical Library. You are invited to participate with an open mind, an open heart and open arms, to embrace truth as you find it, love as you accept it, and peace as you invite it. Beak Speak

Thursday, July 16, 7:00 p.m.

The Chloe Sanctuary for Parrots and Cockatoos hosts a meeting about living with parrots as companions. Parrots are much more than animals who are pretty, talk or dance. They are as intelligent as chimpanzees and challenging to live with for that reason. Still wild animals, we often find these magnificent creatures locked in back rooms because they scream or bite and their human companion has almost nowhere to go for help. We have much to share about parrot training, living with parrots, nutrition, foraging, toys, behavior issues such as screaming or biting, and creating a friendly environment. Please rsvp as seating is limited. Call 760-755-7317, Email fatherdon@chloesanctuary.org. Library donation.
